civil complaint appear to be the same as those made in the Civil Rights complaint on which the captioned Civil Rights matter was opened. The facts do differ, however, in that the time at which the alleged entry of IPS under False Pretenses to Remove Documents was stated by IPS to be November, 1971 in the Civil Rights complaint, while in this civil complaint it is alleged to have been during January or February, 1971. For the information of the Bureau, SA [redacted] [redacted] was, during January and February, 1971, assigned to the San Francisco Division and, in particular, was attending language school at Monterey, California. At that time, i.e., six months after it is at issue, the case will automatically be referred to the Magistrate for pretrial unless a continuance is requested. Motions for continuance of pretrial, however, are strongly disfavored and will not be granted unless good cause is shown. Such motions must be in writing and filed with the Clerk's Office in the usual manner no later than 14 business days prior to the expiration of the aforesaid six-month period. Counsel are charged with properly computing the six-month period.

INTERNAL SECURITY

Reference is made to WFO airtel dated 2/25/74 which enclosed two copies of a civil action, complaint number 74-316, District of Columbia, involving the IPS, et al, Plaintiffs, versus John N. Mitchell, et al, Defendants. Referenced airtel and its enclosures are attached to this memorandum. (U)

PURPOSE:

To advise of above-mentioned civil action and the background thereof and to recommend same be handled by the Office of Legal Counsel. (U)

BACKGROUND:

IPS was the subject of a preliminary inquiry by the FBI in November, 1968, after information was received indicating a possible connection between IPS and the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS). The investigation was expanded in 1971 after it was determined that IPS planned to embark on a five year plan for the radical reconstruction of American society and had circulated to radical groups around the country a document calling for brigades to descend on Washington, D. C., and close down Government agencies. The current investigation is directed toward those areas in which violations of Federal statutes may be developed in view of the activities of IPS personnel involving the Middle East and the Arabs, North and South Vietnam, Tanzania and the Pan-African Movement and contacts with subversive organizations and individuals in the United States. ENCLOSURE

Memorandum to Mr. W. R. Wannall
Re: Institute for Policy Studies (IPS)
100-447935

In May, 1973, Mitchell Rogovin, counsel for IPS, requested Mr. William D. Ruckelshaus, then Acting Director of the FBI, to investigate alleged violations of the civil rights of IPS personnel in general and Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Raskin in particular. In June, 1973, he also wrote to Assistant Attorney General J. Stanley Pottinger concerning the civil rights of IPS personnel. The allegations included illegal surveillances by Federal and local law enforcement agencies, including electronic surveillance and breaking and entering. A civil rights investigation was conducted by our Washington Field Office of the allegations concerning Mr. and Mrs. Raskin and results were furnished to the Civil Rights Division of the Justice Department and to former Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox along with the denials of electronic surveillances or burglaries by FBI Agents. By memorandum dated 10/17/73, Assistant Attorney General Pottinger requested additional investigation relating to alleged breaking and entering and surveillances, including electronic surveillance of IPS. The results of the additional investigation in the form of a letterhead memorandum (LHM) dated 11/16/73, were furnished to the Civil Rights Division on 11/20/73. (U)

By memorandum dated 12/3/73, Mr. Henry S. Ruth, Deputy Special Prosecutor, Watergate Special Prosecution Force (SPF) requested interviews of SAs [redacted] and [redacted] of the Washington Field Office concerning allegations of illegality on their part involving material allegedly taken from IPS. By memorandum dated 12/19/73, the SPF was advised SAs [redacted] and [redacted] had furnished affidavits denying the allegations and the SPF was directed to the Civil Rights Division which then had the entire matter under review. (U)

OBSERVATIONS:

The civil action now being brought by IPS involves the same allegations made in the civil rights case described above, namely, that there was an illegal electronic surveillance of IPS by the defendants, some of whom are past and present FBI personnel and that FBI personnel were involved in illegal breaking and entering of the premises of IPS and responsible for removal of (U)

Memorandum to Mr. W. R. Wannall
Re: Institute for Policy Studies (IPS)

material therefrom. The civil rights investigation currently under review by the Civil Rights Division clearly refutes the allegation of electronic surveillance by the FBI and flatly denies any illegality by FBI personnel. It appears that sufficient information to answer the civil action is contained in the civil rights investigation which is captioned "Unknown Subjects; Marcus Raskin and the Institute for Policy Studies - Victims; Conspiracy Against Rights; Civil Rights" Bureau file 44-56700.

(U)

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the current civil action be handled by the Office of Legal Counsel.

AFFIDAVIT

Washington, D. C.
March 11, 1974

I, the undersigned affiant, a Special Agent (SA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), being duly sworn, furnish this affidavit in response to certain allegations made in a complaint filed on February 20, 1974 in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, Washington, D. C., by the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS), Marcus Raskin, Richard Barnet and Ralph Stavins.

In paragraph 33 of the above mentioned complaint it is alleged that in or about January or February, 1971 the affiant and SA [REDACTED] procured an unnamed female employee of the Metropolitan Police Division (sic) to enter the IPS under false pretenses and to remove documents therefrom.

In response to this allegation the affiant avers that at no time has the affiant in any way caused anyone to enter the IPS under false pretenses or in any other wrongful manner or to wrongfully remove documents therefrom.

The affiant also states that during January and

b6

February, 1971, he was assigned to the San Francisco Division of the FBI and was residing in Pacific Grove, California. The affiant was not in Washington, D. C. during January or February, 1971, for investigative or any other purposes and in fact did not arrive for investigative assignment in Washington, D. C. until after mid-April, 1971.

The affiant additionally avers that he has no knowledge indicating that SA [ ] or any other person committed the acts alleged in the above-mentioned paragraph of the complaint and, further, that at no time has the affiant ever been on the premises of the IPS.

The Honorable William B. Saxbe
Attorney General
Department of Justice
Washington, D. C. 20530

Dear Mr. Saxbe:

On February 20, 1974, Marcus Raskin, Richard Barnett, Ralph Stavins, and the Institute for Policy Studies, filed a civil complaint with the United States District Court for the District of Columbia alleging, among other things, that I and Special Agent [redacted] in January or February, 1971, caused an unknown female employee of the Metropolitan Police Division (sic) to enter the premises of the Institute for Policy Studies under false pretenses and to remove documents therefrom. (U)

b6
b7C

I categorically deny the above allegation and have submitted a sworn affidavit to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on this matter. During all times cited during the complaint, I was performing within the scope of my duties as a Special Agent of the FBI. (U)

I have not secured legal assistance in this matter and I am an active employee of the FBI. I respectfully request that the Department furnish me with legal assistance. (U)

Very truly yours,

[redacted]
Special Agent,
Federal Bureau of Investigation
